What if I talk to...?
They will keep your disclosure as confidential as possible, but are required to report to Title IX & Bias Response for follow up.

If you talk to a Confidential Resource, your information will not be reported to the T9BR. If you talk to Direct Reporting Options or Private Resources, then two things will happen:

1. T9BR will reach out to you to provide formal and informal reporting options.
2. T9BR will use the information disclosed to assess community safety and to help inform MIT’s prevention and education strategies.

Remember: at any point, you can disclose as much or as little as you want.
