We will meet with you privately to make a report.

We will not release your name to the public or press. This information is protected by Massachusetts Law. Crime statistics are made public but personally identifying information is withheld, including in any timely warning bulletins that may need to be sent out.

Our officers will not judge you and you will not be blamed for what occurred.

We will treat you and your particular case with courtesy, sensitivity, dignity, understanding, and professionalism.

If you have a preference for either a male or female officer, we will do our best to accommodate your request.

We will assist you in receiving hospital, medical, counseling, and other support services even if you choose not to pursue criminal charges.

We will consider your case seriously, regardless of your gender and sexual orientation, and regardless of the gender and sexual orientation of the suspect(s).

To be informed of all reporting options
To be free from pressure to make a criminal report
To be notified of existing campus and community medical services, victim advocacy, legal assistance, visa and immigration assistance, student financial aid assistance, counseling, and mental health services, whether or not the crime is reported to campus or civil authorities.

To be informed of options for, and assistance with, making changes to academic, living, transportation, and working situations as well as protective measures offered by MIT.

Institute-Based No Contact Order: The Title IX Office can assist with a variety of measures including a no contact order, academic support, and housing accommodations, whether or not there is a formal complaint filed. Email TitleIX@mit.edu for more information.

Protective Order: A court-issued order that can be enforced anywhere in the United States, no matter where you obtain it. A violation of it can result in criminal charges. MIT Police can provide information and support throughout this process. Once issued, MIT will also work with you to make any accommodations necessary.

To discuss the pros and cons of Orders of Protection, please contact a victim advocate at Violence Prevention & Response by calling 617-253-2300.

You may request protective measures and changes to your academic, work, living, and transportation situations by contacting the Title IX Coordinator at 617-324-7526 or by emailing titleix@mit.edu.
The Institute is committed to responding to sexual misconduct and is required by Federal Law to investigate all allegations and take any remedial action deemed necessary to preserve your safety and that of the community, whether or not you wish to make a formal complaint. However, in planning any response, the wishes of the reporting student are given full consideration. You may receive assistance and support without disclosing details of the incident.

The following chart is a guide for students seeking help and support to better understand the confidentiality levels of key campus resources.

Resources

- MIT Resources
- Mental Health & Counseling: 617-253-2916
- MIT Chaplaincy: https://studentlife.mit.edu/mtchaplains
- MIT Ombuds Office: http://web.mit.edu/ombuds
- MIT Medical: 617-253-4481

- Community Resources
- Boston Area Rape Crisis Center (BARCC): 1-800-841-8371
- Transition House: (617) 661-7203 (DV Shelter)
- MIT Medical: 617-253-4481

- MIT Police: 617-253-1212
- Cambridge Police: 617-349-3300
- MIT Police: 617-253-1212
- Proprietary

- Private

- Title IX Coordinator, titleix@mit.edu
- Dean of Student Life | Student Life Staff | Residental Life Staff | Academic Adviser | Faculty | Coaches | Student Support Services (S3)
- Officce of Graduate Education (OGE)
- Office of Undergraduate Education (OUE)
- Visit TitleIX.mit.edu for a complete list of policies, procedures, and resources

- Confidential

- Title IX Coordinator, titleix@mit.edu
- MIT Resources
- Violence Prevention & Response (VPR) is available 24/7 for confidential support, information, and resources.
- MIT Health & Counseling Services: 617-253-2916
- MIT Ombuds Office: http://web.mit.edu/ombuds
- MIT Medical: 617-253-4481
- Beth Israel and MGH can provide medical services and conduct evidence collection. Medical services are also provided on campus by MIT Medical.

- Retaliation against anyone who files a report is strictly prohibited. Reports of retaliatory behavior will be investigated and could lead to disciplinary action.

- "I want to think through my situation with someone who can keep my information confidential as possible."

- "I need to confide in someone and it is okay if that person needs to tell the Title IX Coordinator."