

I need to talk. Who's here to listen?

The Title IX & Bias Response Office is here to assist with any situation involving gender-based discrimination, including sexual harassment and assault, rape, intimate partner violence, and stalking.
Visit titleix.mit.edu for more information.

Remember: at any point, you can disclose as much or as little as you want.

CONFIDENTIAL RESOURCES*

VPR 617-253-2300 \(24 hours\)
Clergy
Ombuds
Mental Health and Counseling
MIT Medical

*These resources will not report any information to Title IX & Bias Response.

DIRECT REPORTING OPTIONS

Title IX & Bias Response Office \(T9BR\)
MIT Police

What if I talk to...?

PRIVATE RESOURCES

Office of the Dean for Student Life
Residential Life Staff
Academic Advisors
Faculty/TAs
Coaches
S³

Office of Graduate Education \(OGE\)
Office for Undergraduate Education \(OUE\)

They will keep your disclosure as confidential as possible, but are required to report to Title IX & Bias Response for follow up.

What happens next?

If you talk to a Confidential Resource, your information will not be reported to the T9BR. If you talk to Direct Reporting Options or Private Resources, then two things will happen:

1

T9BR will reach out to you to provide formal and informal reporting options.

2

T9BR will use the information disclosed to assess community safety and to help inform MIT's prevention and education strategies.